MANALI TO GEMUR

We kick the journey off from Manali on and drive 90 km to Gemur via Atal Tunnel. Our convoy comes to a halt at Gemoor Khar. We will be spending another day at Gemoor Khar to acclimatise our bodies a little better before hitting the higher roads that lay ahead for us on this journey

 Days 2 & 3  90 km / 4 hrs  3300 m

GEMUR TO PURNE VIA SHINKU LA

The first demanding drive of this trip. We go over the 5019 m Shinku La pass into the Zaskar region. A tough drive for the most part with sections of the road trail meant only for a 4 x 4. The landscapes are rugged and desolate yet spectacular. We have a picnic lunch at ground of Gombo Ranjan before moving on to Purne – a hamlet perched above the confluence of the Lingti and Kargiak rivers.

Day 4

100 km
6 hours

3800m

PURNE TO PADUM. HIKE TO PHUKTAL

We start with a morning hike of 2-3 hours to Phuktal Gumpa – perhaps the remotest and most spectacularly located monastery in the Indian Himalayas. Following that, we drive to Padum – the administrative capital of the Zaskar region.

Day 5

70 km / 4 hrs

PADUM TO LAMAYURU

We make our way out of Zaskar on another remote road trail. We drive via Zangla, where we see the ruins of an ancient fort and cross Singe La (4950 m), Wanla and Sirsir La to meet the Leh – Srinagar Highway near Khalsi. We then drive for about 20 mins to reach Lamayuru (don't forget to visit the majestically poised ancient gompa here).

KARGIL TO SRINAGAR

Day 8

Today we drive via Drass and over Zoji La (3500 metres) to enter the evergreen valleys of Kashmir. As we drive through the beautiful valley, we pass Sonamarg and descend to Srinagar. Upon arrival we have the option to take a relaxing sunset shikara ride on the serene Nageen Lake.

Day 9

100 km
6 hours

1585 m

We start the day early with a morning shikara ride to the floating vegetable market. After breakfast we drive to Yusmarg – the Meadow of Jesus; an offbeat, pristine and exquisitely beautiful locale. Once back in Srinagar we take a trip to the Pari Mahal and Chashm-e-Shahi and a visit to Shankracharya Hill for panoramic views of Srinagar and its lakes. You also have the option of visiting the local market.

SRINAGAR TO GULABGARH

Day 10

230 km
11 hours

1638 m

We drive towards Kishtwar and then onto our final destination and campsite for the day, Gulabgarh. Known as the land of sapphire, saffron and shrines, this region is incredibly beautiful – lofty glaciated mountains, corrugated meadows, and dense conifer forests. Home to two national parks, this area is also known for its rich wildlife.

GULABGARH TO SURAL BHATTORI

Today we head back to Himachal from J&K. Of all the drives thus far, today's will be the most demanding one. Bulk of the route is a winding road trail of gravel & sand, carved into the side of a cliff with a sheer drop of a couple of thousand feet on the other side. It gets trickier because of the rocky overhangs that prevent a view of oncoming vehicles. We finally emerge in the beautiful, undisturbed and sparsely populated Pangi Valley of Chamba. We reach Sural Bhatori, the last village in the Sural Valley at an altitude slightly more than 3,000 metres. Overnight stay in mobile camp.

Day 11

125 km
7 hours

3000 m

SURAL BHATORI - LOCAL WALKS

It's a day to unwind and relax. We take a walk around Sural Bhatori, a hidden gem, that offers majestic views of the mountains with hundreds of cattle grazing in the open meadows. Enroute, we will also find a cluster of homes and small villages, that are equally beautiful.

Day 12

3300 m

As you wish

SURAL BHATORI TO DALHOUSIE

Today will be a long and challenging drive as we go from Sural Battori to Dalhousie and cross Sach Pass in the process. The first 60 km or so is the last 'tough drive' of this trip as it involves going over Sach Pass. From Bairagarh we continue on better roads till we get to Dalhousie for some well deserved rest and celebration.
