ARRIVE KULLU. REST & PREPARE

It all starts with your arrival at Kullu, stay at our very own homestead or similar, 30 km short of Manali. Take in the green and quaint surroundings this day, meet our representative, and get introduced to what the following days are going to have in store for you.

Day 1

0 km

1900 m

DRIVE MANALI TO JISPA. REST AND ACCLIMATIZE

After an early breakfast, we drive to Jispa. The journey offers some truly breathtaking views of the Himalayas at their best! Close to Jispa at Gemoor Khar we prepare to spend the night at this beautiful manor house.

Day 2

120 km

3200 m

DRIVE TO KHANJAR, TREK TO THANPATTAN

Day 3

3600 m

4 hours

We are now entering the cradle of Miyar. Plains surrounded by tall rocky peaks is why Miyar is often called the Yosemite of India. We will cross the beautiful chorten on the way as we head to camp in the beautiful campsite, Thanpattan.

TREK THANPATTAN TO ZARDUNG

As we enter deeper into the valley, we face stream crossings that make things interesting. We camp at Zardung, "Zardung", translates to "land of boulders" in the local language. The landscape gives the campsite a truly unique vibe and an opportunity to try some bouldering.

 Day 4

 5 hours

 3800 m

TREK ZARDUNG TO PHALPU

Today we walk to camp higher than Kesar Yon Chhap, famous for its seven emerald lakes. It is heralded as a sacred place to the locals and offers breathtaking views of the Miyar Glacier. This extra hike makes it a little easier the next trekking day as we embark on the Miyar Glacier.

 Day 5

5 hours

3980m

BUFFER / CONTINGENCY DAY

Day 6

The nature of this journey makes it prudent to keep a contingency day. If not used earlier, we'll use it in a way to make the trip more memorable.

We start making our way towards the snout of the Miyar Glacier. The landscape goes from green meadows to one filled with rock and ice. This is also the first day when we actually camp on the glacier with snow and icy views all around us.

Day 7

7 hours

4400 m

PHALPU TO GLACIER CAMP 1

CAMP 1 TO GLACIER CAMP 2 (KANG LA BASE)

Day 8

7 hours

4900 m

Another day on the Miyar glacier awaits us! The climb is not really steep and most of it will be on solid ice. A full day's walk on an Antarctic landscape with the excitement of the dynamicity of walking on a glacier is sure to keep you occupied.

The D-day has arrived! With the final ascent and an even longer descent to follow that will finally take us out of the icy slopes and onto solid ground, a welcome relief after two days of sleeping on ice. After successfully crossing the Kang La we finally reach our camp on a small meadow by the stream.

Day 9

9 hours

5450 m

BASE CAMP TO BASE CAMP ON THE ZANSKAR SIDE OVER KANG LA

KANG LA TOP & MIYAR GLACIER

TREK TO BARDAN. DRIVE TO PURNE

We start early today and make quick work of the final walking part of this trip. We will reach the road around noon or just before to find our transport waiting to pick us up and drive us to Pune. Celebrate your accomplishment at the day's end - Kang La isn't everyone's cup of tea.
